St Cuthbert, 84
[20 March]

Dear Bayne

I've never been less affectionate in my feelings to you, though I did not write - but you know one can't keep up correspondence with people in the opposite camp - in such a war time as this is. You shall have that tree piece as soon as I can find it - but it is not mine - it is by a person of twenty times my drawing gift - the mother of Frank Miles the pretty girl sketcher. You shall have a bit of mine too. however - as soon as I'm time, and force, to turn his drawers over his dog tired feet now with the hum of London.

Can affect I'm.
